Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

> The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claim 1 recites that the electric heater is under the water tank, and that a probe is positioned on the heater in the tank. It is unclear if the heater is under or in the tank. For the purpose of examination the heater will be assumed to be under the tank and the probe be on the heater under the tank.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

> A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –
> (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Braun et al. (US 4714822).

Braun et al. discloses a safety device of a coffee pot comprising: a pot body provided with a water tank and a handle: a n electric heater installed under said water tank: and a probe unit provided on said electric heater in said water tank, wherein said probe unit is provided with a metal probe, said metal probe wrapped up by an insulating material, further comprising a control circuit, said control circuit comprising: a metal probe, said metal probe able to produce a signal able to turn on and off the electric source of said electric heater of said coffee pot.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Schotten et al. (US 6259069) discloses a heating plate for heating a tank of water or the like including a heating element which can be used as a capacitance sensor to sense the size of the load placed on the heating plate. Schotten does not explicitly discuss sensing the water level in the tank Miquelot (US 5294779) discloses a heating plate having a hole in the middle for positioning a temperature probe to sense the temperature of the vessel being heated as well as a thermal fuse as a safety precaution against overheating. Berkcan et al. (US 6462316) discloses a ceramic hotplate with means to prevent boil dry conditions including a sensor for the direct detection of, or inferential detection of, temperature of the vessel. Berkcan does not explicitly discuss the detection of water level in the vessel being heated, but does disclose a boil-dry condition being sensed.
